INTRODUCTION

A.
Attachment C of the South Carolina Opioid Emergency Response Plan describes the necessity and the method by which all agencies will educate and communicate residents and stakeholders about all efforts associated with the collaborative effort underway to combat the opioid crisis in South Carolina.

B.
Attachment C is intended to provide a mechanism to organize, integrate, and coordinate information to ensure timely, accurate, accessible, and consistent messaging across multiple jurisdictions and/or disciplines with nongovernmental organizations and the private sector locally and statewide.

PURPOSE

The successful elimination of opioid addiction and its consequences will depend heavily on robust public education and outreach efforts to stakeholders utilizing a cohesive, joint message that is consistent and easily communicated to a variety of audiences by organizations comprising the OERT. Education and outreach efforts must be collective and the result of all organizations being able to develop and utilize consistent products that can be easily understood by people of all backgrounds and comprehension capabilities. Organizations that combine efforts into one unified campaign will be able to amplify each individual agency’s messaging by working together and sharing resources toward a common goal.
III. ASSESSMENT

A. Current Efforts:

1. Public Outreach: Since 2018, the Department of Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Services (DAODAS) has conducted a public education campaign to address the opioid epidemic in South Carolina. The Just Plain Killers campaign seeks to raise and deepen the public’s awareness of opioid use and misuse in the state. The foundations of the campaign are robust television, radio and social media messages, supported by a website (justplainkillers.com) that contains lifesaving information about naloxone availability; prescription storage, disposal and use; overdose and mortality statistics; and printable resources, including brochures, fact sheets and PowerPoint presentations. These resources are intended for partner agencies, law enforcement, fire and EMS professionals, schools, and religious organizations across the state.

2. Healthcare Providers: The S.C. Medical Association, S.C. Hospital Association, and Blue Cross Blue Shield of South Carolina have spearheaded a pain management campaign that includes the creation of educational materials that are shared and utilized throughout the medical community.

3. Educators: To date, there are no specific efforts that target educators.

4. Opioid Use Disorder Stigma: In 2021, DAODAS launched a public education campaign – Embrace Recovery SC – dedicated to ending the stigma surrounding people in recovery from substance use disorders (SUDs), including opioid use disorder. The campaign includes television, radio and social media messaging to raise awareness of the recovery process through which individuals improve their health and wellness, live self-directed lives, and strive to reach their full potential. The campaign is supported by a microsite (embracerecoverysc.com) that provides information on recovery community organizations, support groups, recovery options and the “language of recovery,” which stresses the need for person-first, recovery-focused and medically accurate language when discussing or describing SUDs. As part of the Embrace Recovery SC campaign, news organizations and other populations throughout the state have been asked to take a pledge to use the language of recovery when discussing issues related to SUDs.
